Minorities Commission and Linguistic Minorities Commission

2583. SHRI HARI SINGH: Will the Minister of WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a Minorities Commission has been working in Delhi for more than last ten years;

(b) whether it is also a fact that a separate Commissioner for Linguistic Minorities is functioning with staff at Allahabad headquarters;

(c) if so, whether Government propose to merge the above two officers and locate them in Delhi to reduce the expenditure of the Government incurred due to separate establishments of these two officers; and

(d) if the merger is not possible the reasons therefor?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF WELFARE (SHRIMATI SUMATI ORAON): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir.

(c) and (d) The Minorities Commission has been set up by a non-statutory Government Resolution in 1978. But the Special Officer for Linguistic Minorities, commonly known as the Commissioner for Linguistic Minorities, as a Constitutional body set up under Article 350-B of the Constitution. The purpose for which these two organisations have been set up and their scope and functions are entirely different. Therefore, the question of merging them into a single body would not arise.
